Dear colleagues,

The IOA is calling nominations for the IOC Young Change Maker Programme – Buenos Aires 2018 Youth Olympic Games. The IOC has limited openings for this position and all NOCs are not guaranteed selection.

- Deadline for sending nomination to IOA – 25 August 2017
- IOC announce selected Young Change Makers – October 2017

If the IOC selects the nominee of IOA, he/ she would be able to attend the Seminar in Buenos Aires and also be part of the IOA delegation at the 2018 Youth Olympic Games. The YCM Seminar is a four-day training to equip the YCMs with the information, knowledge and motivation they need to fulfil their mission. As an IOC programme, the IOC will cover all transport and accommodation costs for the YCM Seminar. The same costs will be covered during Games-time.

- Young Change Makers Seminar in Buenos Aires – April/ May 2018
- 2018 Youth Olympic Games Buenos Aires – October 2018

About the Programme:

The Young Change-Maker is empowered to motivate and inspire our YOG athletes and ensure that they get the most out of their YOG journey. Pre-Games, your Young Change-Maker will help promote the YOG and its values and inform the athletes about the Learn & Share activities. During Games time, he/she will actively facilitate our athletes' participation in these activities and encourage them to truly experience the YOG spirit of Compete, Learn and Share. Post-Games, all Young Change- Makers will be invited to remain engaged and actively involved with the IOC and IOA in promoting sport, the Olympic values and the YOG spirit. The attached Annexure 1 has more details of the Programme.
