20.CODE OF CONDUCT

The Ride To Live Academy Horse Show (RTL Show) expects all those involved to adhere to The Equestrian Federation Of India, EFI's Code of Conduct and to acknowledge and accept that at all times the welfare of the horse must be paramount and must never be subordinated to competitive or commercial influences.

At all stages of preparation and training of the competition horses, welfare must take precedence over all other demands. This includes good horse management, training methods, farriery, tack, and transportation.

Horses and competitors must be fit, competent and in good health before they can compete. This encompasses medication use, surgical procedures that threaten welfare or safety, pregnancy in mares and the misuse of aids.

Events must not prejudice horse welfare. This involves paying careful attention to the competition areas, ground surfaces, weather conditions, stabling, site safety and fitness of the horse for onward travel after the event.

Every effort must be made to ensure that the horses receive proper attention after they have competed and that they are treated humanely when their competition careers are over. This covers proper veterinary care, competition injuries, euthanasia and retirement.
